1. Board authorization to approve applications for Fire Chief

Motion was made to approve applications by L. Wayne Prejean

Motion seconded by Charley Whipp III

Public comment:

Training Chief Troy Gauthier requested clarity regarding the vetting of the applications. Chairman Clark and Board member Whipp III affirmed that applications were vetted based on qualification requirements.

CAO Rachel Godeaux requested clarification of the next steps for awareness. Chairman Clark provided additional details on the process. He noted that the applications will be sent to the OSE for further vetting, a final roll call with exam time and location details will be completed, and a study guide will also be provided. He advised that the OSE will furnish the scores for approval once the exam has been administered.

Board members completed an additional review of the applications, resulting in the removal of one application.

1a. Motion was made to approve applications minus disqualified applicants by Dwight Prudhomme

Motion seconded by L. Wayne Prejean

Public comment:

Fire Investigator Alton Trahan requested clarification regarding the Fire Chief's qualifications requirement for applicants employed after 1992. Chairman Clark noted that the requirements are open to interpretation and asked whether there were any concerns about any of the applications.

He highlighted the extent of the vetting process, emphasizing the barriers to entry, such as passing the exam, the review by the pointing authorities committee, and the selection process.
